

Important Information

Please read the following important information. Contact your Broker if there is anything you do not understand, or if you have any questions.

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE/ DUTY NOT TO MAKE A MISREPRESENTATION

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the insurer's decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until the insurer agrees to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate an insurance contract.

For Personal, Domestic and Household insurance contracts, you have an additional duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to the insurer. To ensure you meet your duty, your responses to the insurers' questions must be truthful, accurate and complete.

IF YOU DO NOT TELL THE INSURER SOMETHING

If you do not tell the insurer anything you are required to, they may cancel your contract, or reduce the amount they will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell the insurer is fraudulent, they may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

UNDER INSURANCE

Your contract of insurance may contain an average or under insurance provision. This means that if you under insure, you will have to bear part of any loss yourself.

INSURING THE INTEREST OF OTHER PARTIES

If you require another party to be covered by your policy, you must request this in advance. Most policy conditions will not provide indemnity to other parties (e.g. mortgagees, lessors, principals etc.) unless their interest is noted on the policy.

CLAIMS MADE POLICIES

Some policies (for example, professional indemnity insurance) are "claims made" policies. This means that claims that are first advised to you (or made against you) and reported to your insurer during the period that the policy is current are insured under that policy, irrespective of when the incident causing the claim occurred (unless there is a date beyond which the policy does not cover – this is called a "retroactive date. In order to ensure that your entitlement to claim under the policy is protected, you must report all incidents that may give rise to a claim to the Insurers without delay after they come to your attention and before the policy expires.

COOLING OFF

All Retail Products are subject to a "cooling off period" of a minimum of 14 days and details of this are contained in the PDS. During this time, if you are not happy with a Retail Product, you may withdraw from the new contract at no cost to you other than our broker's fee, which is not refundable.

CANCELLATION OF YOUR POLICY.

If there is a refund or reduction of your premium as the result of a cancellation or alteration to a policy or based on a term of your policy (such as a premium adjustment provision), we will retain any fee we have charged you. We will also retain our commission or charge you a cancellation fee equal to the reduction in commission. We will also retain any adviser fee we have charged you.

PREMIUM FUNDING

Premium funding allows you to spread out the cash flow associated with paying your insurance premiums over the next twelve months.

We receive a commission from the funder for arranging the funding contract, full details are available on request. Please note that should the insurance policy be cancelled, before the expiry date for whatever reason, the Premium Funder will charge you the full interest applicable to the contract, as detailed in the Loan Application Form. Typically there will be no refund of our commission on the refund premium and no refund of any fee we may have charged you for arranging the cover. We also reserve the right to charge you a policy cancellation handling fee. In some cases insurers also apply minimum premiums to policies, which may further reduce the refund that you might otherwise receive.

The impact of the above on you is that any refund you receive for the mid term cancellation of your policy will usually be significantly less than a pro rata calculation would produce and in extreme cases may involve you having to make an additional final payment even though the policy has been cancelled. Therefore prior to cancelling a policy and replacing it with another cover we strongly recommend that you discuss your situation with us so that we can advise the exact extent and impact of the early cancellation provisions mentioned above.”

CREDIT TERMS & PAYMENT

Unless agreed otherwise, Credit Terms are strictly in accordance with the period specified on the invoice, if you fail to pay the full premium within the agreed period your cover will lapse. The insurer will be entitled to a premium for the time held covered but you will be uninsured from the date your cover was cancelled.
